JAMAL BEST RESEARCH SCHOLAR AWARD

To recognize and honour outstanding research achievements of research scholars, the management of Jamal Mohamed College has introduced the "Jamal Best Research Scholar Award." This distinguished award acknowledges full-time Ph.D. scholars who exhibit exceptional research capabilities, make significant contributions to their field, and actively participate in Jamal Journal Club and other research promotion initiatives on campus. Full-time research scholars from all departments, both men and women, are eligible for this recognition of academic excellence. Nominees must have published a minimum of two research articles.

Applications should be submitted in the prescribed format available on the Jamal Research portal. A hard copy of the nomination, recommended by the Research Supervisor and Head of the Department, should be submitted to the office of the Centre for Research on or before 03.03.2025. Additionally, a PDF copy of the nomination must be sent to jmcdeanresearch@jmc.edu.
