ASSOCIATION REPORT 2021-2022

INAUGURATION REPORT

The Association of Business Administration (Women) for the academic year 2021-2022 Inaugural function was held on 28 SEPTEMBER 2021 at 4.30 a.m through via Microsoft Teams (Virtual mode) in our college. The Inaugural function was started with Qirath by Ayesha of II BBA-E to invoke the blessings of the Almighty.

Dr.B.DEEPA, Assistant Professor of BBA welcomed the gathering and introduced the Chief Guest Dr.D.HEENA COWSAR. Assistant Professor, Department of commerce, Bon secure College for women Thanjavur. Dr. S.MOHAMED MOHIDEEN Member Incharge felicitated the gathering. madam explained about the soft skill development and also college to corporate Transition is an on-going process in everyone's life that takes place at different stages. This might be from the final years of school to the early years of higher education, occupational training, independent living or social opportunities. For an individual, starting to work in an organization is a unique and critically important phase that requires a special perspective and strategy to be successful as a fresher. Research suggests that the success of the transition period will have a major impact on aspects like salary, advancement, job satisfaction, and ability to have cordial relationships within the organization as well as on one's own feelings of success, accountability and commitment to the job. Campus life and corporate life are fundamentally different. If one continues to have same expectations from his employer as he/she had from the professors in the campus, one will be highly disappointed and damage the career success as the culture of education is so different from the organizational culture. So, we need to bridge the gap. Punctuality is very mandatory. It is better to arrive at work on time. Strictly follow the rules and regulations of the corporate. Listen, observe and give attention to every minor detail before jumping to any conclusions. Stay away from internal politics and gossip. It is better to observe the happenings around us and not contribute to it. Follow professional ethics by imparting values and manners. For instance, one's friend's room may be okay with him, but barging into the employer's room is not acceptable. Use simple magic words like 'Please' and 'Thank you'. Be a learner always to learn what you need to know. Find a mentor to guide in the career path. Always stick to deadlines. Complete the assignments before time so that one will have time to make changes if required. Pay keen attention to corporate culture to learn how things work within the organizations. The biggest challenge while transition from campus to corporate, you yourself have to develop the self confidence that you have the ability to perform the job assigned to you. You also will be expected to demonstrate that you have the ability to learn and perform more to the satisfaction of your superiors. The more you deliver, more the expectations is added from your end. It is only you who has to create your space in the team as contributing member, because nobody likes a weak link in their team. Believe in one thing, in the end you will get through this and transform into a beautiful corporate butterfly! Finally the programme ended by Miss Hamdha Asaraf , II BBA -E proposed the vote of thanks.

Report on Special Lecture Programme On Group Discussion on 16-11-2021.

The Association of Business Administration Inauguration function (women) for the academic year 2021-2022 was held on 16th November 2021 in the placement cell in our college. The group discussion was started with Oirath by Ms. Ameera Fathima of III BBA 'E', to invoke the blessings of the Almighty. Dr. S. MOHAMED MOHIDEEN Member Incharge of the Department welcomed the gathering and introduced the Chief Guest C. Mohamed Fazil, Communication Trainer of Jamal Mohamed College delivered a special lecture about Group discussion and personality development. Sir encourage the students how to participate the interviews and moulded their optimistic strength. Many group discussions have no specific purpose except the exchange of ideas and opinions. Ultimately, an effective group discussion is one in which many different ideas and viewpoints are heard and considered. This allows the group to accomplish its purpose if it has one, or to establish a basis either for ongoing discussion or for further contact and collaboration among its members. Sir highlighted create a new situation – form a coalition, start an initiative, etc. Sir has Explore cooperative or collaborative arrangements among groups or organizations. Gave everyone involved a voice. Whether the discussion is meant to form a basis for action, or just to play with ideas, it gives all members of the group a chance to speak their opinions, to agree or disagree with others, and to have their thoughts heard. In many community-building situations, the members of the group might be chosen specifically because they represent a cross-section of the community, or a diversity of points of view. Allows for a variety of ideas to be expressed and discussed. A group is much more likely to come to a good conclusion if a mix of ideas is on the table, and if all members have the opportunity to think about and respond to them.

Personality Development

- Sir Encouraged those who might normally be reluctant to speak their minds. Often, quiet people have important things to contribute, but aren't assertive enough to make themselves heard. A good group discussion will bring them out and support them. Can often open communication channels among people who might not communicate in any other way. People from very different backgrounds, from opposite ends of the political spectrum, from different cultures, who may, under most circumstances, either never make contact or never trust one another enough to try to communicate, might, in a group discussion, find more common ground than they expected. Is sometimes simply the obvious, or even the only, way to proceed. Several of the examples given at the beginning of the section – the group of parents concerned about their school system, for instance, or the college class – fall into this category, as do public hearings and similar gatherings. We'll begin by looking at what you might consider if you have time to prepare. Then we'll examine what it takes to make an effective discussion leader or facilitator, regardless of external circumstances. Dr. J. KHADER SHARIEF Coordinator felicitated the gathering. Sir stimulate their personality .there were 57 students participated. Sajima of III BBA – E proposed a vote of thanks.

REPORT

BBA Association Special Lecture on 14-05-2022

The Association of Business Administration Inauguration function (women) for the academic year 2021-2022 was held on 16th November 2021 in the placement cell in our college. The group discussion was started with Qirath by Ms. Hamdha Asraf of III BBA 'E', to invoke the blessings of the Almighty. Dr. B. DEEPA Vice president of the Department welcomed the gathering and introduced the Chief Guest A. Famitha Banu, Dean of Arts and Associate Professor, Department of English of Jamal Mohamed College delivered a special lecture on Resume as a first impression

SPECIAL ADDRESS

- Madam highlighted Resume as a first impression so every student has to prepare a fabulous resume for every student. Your CV/Resume is used to make a favourable impression on a prospective employer. For this reason, it is often referred to as one of the most crucial steps taken during a job search as it helps you to get an interview call which is the first step to your dream job. It gives all the important information about you. According to me, a resume has to be like a platter full of yummy dishes, very precise as per the requirement of the customer. Employer use resume throughout the hiring process to learn more about applicant and whether he/she might be a good fit. Your resume should be easy to read, simply summarize your accomplishments and skills and highlight relevant experience. You might consider having multiple versions of your resume tailored to the jobs you're applying for. Here are a few key resume writing tips that will help you organize and design your resume. As you apply for different jobs, you should study each job description for keywords that show what the employer is looking for in an ideal candidate. Include those keywords in your resume where relevant as employer will look for those only. For example, if you're applying for a job as a HR-Recruiter, an employer might list keywords such as "hiring", "screening", "mentoring," in the job description. Pay particular attention to anything listed in the sections labelled "Requirements" or "Qualifications" or "Desired candidate profile". If you have the skills that employers are looking for, you can add these same terms to your resume in the experience or skills sections. When crafting your resume, you might study examples of resumes from your industry for inspiration and best practices. Key three main points you should look for make it simple and easy to read. When formatting your resume, use a basic font that is easy to read, both for hiring managers and for applicant management systems. Google also favours the simple over the complex. Many fonts make your resume clear and easy to read while retaining your individual style. Make it brief & clear. You'll notice that each section of the resume sample is short and to-the-point, including the summary and experience descriptions. Including only the most key and relevant information means employers are able to consume more information about you, and more quickly understand your fitness for the role. Include figures and dates. Employers are highly responsive to measurable proven value. Figures allow them to better understand the value you may bring to the position. Your resume should be written using active language without extraneous words. This means using power words, such as "achieved", "earned", "completed" or "accomplished". If your resume is too long, you might consider making sentences shorter or ideas more concise again matching with the key words. Dr. J. KHADER SHARIEF Coordinator felicitated the gathering. Sir stimulate their qualities and preparation for excellent resume model and also give some tips to students. there were 184 students participated. S.Baumi Ranjita of II BBA – E proposed a vote of thanks.

Madam explained about corporate Communication in the digital worldis much more than just “public relations” for a corporation. Corporate communications incorporates a whole range of specific disciplines, such as corporate design, corporate advertising, internal communications, management of issues, and relations with investors. Corporate communication is a total communication activity created by the company in order to achieve the company's planned objectives. Corporate communication can be characterized multiple ways. Based upon those characteristics corporate communication involves a wide range of "managerial" and "tactical" activities. Coordinating communication in a corporation requires strategies and programs which target strategic interests of the company. The success and sustainability depends on how the company is viewed by their key stakeholders, and through these strategies and programs corporations are able to build and maintain relationships to protect their reputations. Having strategies and programs not only benefits relationships and reputations but also provides a corporate communications flow of information with communication practitioners to stabilize corporation's interests.
