Birth & Death

He gives his harness bells a shake
To ask if there is some mistake.
The only other sound's the sweep
Of easy wind and downy flake

- ▶ Bell is a kind of guide here and here the line suggests that a person who can predict the bad or worst situation before the things will happen by getting some signs.
- ▶ So, here bell is use as symbol for make him aware about the place.
- ▶ Instead of bells ringing sound we find the sound of sweeping, and this comes from the slight wind and softly falling snow.

The woods are lovely, dark and deep,
But I have promises to keep,
And miles to go before I sleep,
And miles to go before I sleep.

- ▶ Poet connects the word woods with life and the meaning of this line is that life is lovely as well as dark, it means full of risk and difficulty.
- ▶ The line suggest that death is the ultimate reality of the life but before that an Individual has some duty to fulfill. And the words like “and miles to go” suggest the same thing that there are so many works and responsibility.

The Word “Sleep”  Death of Poet

What is the Central Purpose of the Poem

- ▶ The Speaker Wants to reflect his feeling and experience he encountered during his journey in the woods, that is he has realized peace, beauty in nature and death.
- ▶ In nature you can find beauty and peace at heart.
- ▶ You cannot choose what you really want to do if you have “Promise to Keep”, which are your duty and responsibility to fulfill.
