ACTIVE PARTICIPATION OF STUDENTS IN SPECIAL LECTURE

The outcomes of the Zoology (SF-Women) Association 2024–2025 special lecture held on December 17, 2024, can be summarized as follows:

1. Enlightenment on Government Exams: Students and staff were provided valuable insights into the Tamil Nadu Public Service Commission (TNPSC) exams. The Chief Guest, Dr. T. Selvaraju, shared innovative approaches and methods for preparing for these competitive exams, which encouraged students to consider and approach government exams with a strategic mindset.
2. Increased Awareness and Engagement: The interactive nature of the lecture, where Dr. Selvaraju asked questions related to government exams, fostered a deeper understanding and engagement among the students. This engagement helped them think critically about the challenges and opportunities in pursuing public sector careers.
3. Patriotism and Cultural Engagement: The students demonstrated their love for the motherland through cultural expressions such as the Tamil Thai Valthu song and the National Anthem, reinforcing the importance of patriotism and unity among the students.
4. Motivation and Inspiration: The lecture served as a source of motivation for the students, particularly those considering government service. Dr. Selvaraju's inspiring thoughts and practical advice provided students with the confidence to pursue these exams.
5. Strengthened Student-Staff Relationship: The event helped strengthen the bond between students and staff, as both groups participated in the lecture and shared in the collective learning experience. It also encouraged greater communication and collaboration within the Zoology department.
6. Successful Event Organization: The well-organized event, including the involvement of students as masters of ceremony, prayer leaders, and performers, highlighted the collaborative effort and teamwork within the Zoology department, contributing to the success of the program.
7. Acknowledgment and Gratitude: The formal expression of gratitude by Dr. P. Dhanalakshmi, Vice President of the Zoology (SF-Women) Association, to the management and the Chief Guest helped create a positive atmosphere and reinforced the importance of collaboration between the college, staff, and external experts.

In conclusion, the lecture not only provided academic and motivational value but also promoted unity, patriotism, and active student participation.
