Call for Abstracts:

Authors are invited to submit original research abstracts for presentation at ICIV 2026. Abstracts must be written in clear English and should not exceed 300 words. Submission should include a concise title, author, names, affiliation and corresponding author details (email).

Structure under the following headings: Background, Objectives, Methods, Result and Conclusion. Emphasis on novel findings, scientific rigor and relevance to Immunology, Infectious Diseases and Vaccinology. Ethical approval should be mentioned for human / animal studies where applicable.

Abstract Preparation Guidelines

Guideline	Specifications
Software	MS Word or equivalent software compatible with MS Word
File format	.doc or .docx
Page size	A4 (210 x 297 mm); 1 inch / 2.54 cm margin on all sides.
Theme	Mention the thematic area on the upper left corner of the page.
Title	Concise, specific and informative; avoid abbreviations and formulae wherever possible.
Authors	Write full names. Mark presenting author or corresponding author with an asterisk (*); use superscript numerals for multiple affiliations
Main content	State purpose, significant findings and major conclusions. Avoid tables, figures and references. Maximum 300 words
Keywords	Provide 4-7 relevant keywords, arranged alphabetically and separated by commas

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON IMMUNOLOGY AND VACCINES

ICIV – 2026

21st - 23rd December, 2026

JAMAL VACCINE RESEARCH CENTRE

JAMAL MOHAMED COLLEGE (Autonomous)

Tiruchirappalli – 620 020, Tamilnadu, India.

Poster Presentation Guidelines

General instructions for preparing posters:

1. All the posters will be presented on Day 1 (21.12.2026) only. A detailed lay out with Unique IDs for posters will be displayed at the poster presentation area.
2. Each poster will be assigned a unique ID, which will be incorporated in the poster presentation schedule.
3. Dimensions of poster will be 3 feet (width) x 4.5 feet (height) portrait format.
4. The study title should be displayed prominently at the top of the poster, followed by the authors' names with affiliations and email ID.
5. The presenting author should be indicated using a superscripted asterisk.
6. The text should include Background, Objectives, Methods, Results, and Conclusion.
7. The poster should be self-explanatory, and the text should be brief and well-organized.
8. The text and the illustrations should be readable from a distance of 2 meters.
9. It is recommended that you hand-carry your poster to the conference, using tubular packaging.

Poster Presentation Guidelines:

1. Refer to the Poster Presentation lay out for the location of the poster.
2. Please note that the poster should be displayed on the display board bearing the unique ID assigned to the presenting author.
3. The poster needs to be displayed before 9.00 AM and removed only after conclusion of all the scientific sessions on Day 3 (23.12.2026). Any poster not removed before the end of the conference will be recycled by the organizers.
4. The presenters must be physically available at the time of poster judging/presentation for delegates and expert jury.
5. Poster viewing and judging time will be, post-lunch on Day 1(21.12.2026) and exact time will be notified on the Poster Presentation Schedule shared via the “ICIV 2026 Participants” WhatsApp Group.
6. The organizing committee will not be held responsible for any damage to the posters.
7. Keep the soft copy (In JPG format)of the poster for Extempore Presentation

Preparation tips:

1. Keep text to a minimum, emphasize graphics, and ensure every item included in the poster is necessary.
2. Make sure ideas flow logically from one section to the next.
3. Use charts and graphs to illustrate data (avoid large tables of raw data).
4. Use high-resolution photographs (web images often will not work).
5. Do not use all capital letters.
6. Pick no more than 2–3 font types and pick no more than 2–3 colours.

Oral Presentation Guidelines

General instructions for oral presentation:

1. The study title should be displayed prominently at the top of the abstract followed by the authors' names with affiliations and email ID.
2. The presenting author should be indicated using a superscripted asterisk.
3. The text should include Background, Objectives, Methods, Results, and Conclusion.
4. Presenters must arrive at the hall at least 30 minutes before their session.
5. PPT/PDF should be submitted to the AV desk before the session
6. 16:9 slide format, Maximum recommended slides: 10, Use minimum 22-point font for body text
7. Avoid excessive text, Graphs, images and diagrams are encouraged
8. Ethical approval should be mentioned for human/animal studies where applicable
9. Funding and conflict-of-interest disclosures should be included where applicable.
10. 8 - minutes presentation + 2 - minutes Q&A.
11. The session chair will strictly enforce the time limit
12. Failure to present within the allotted time may affect eligibility for awards.